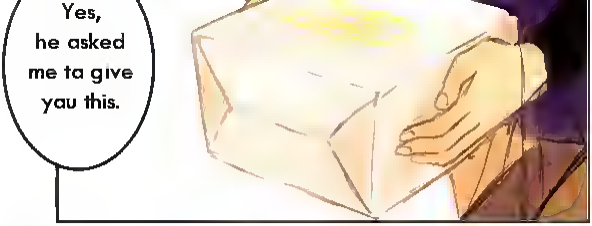
I wos actually looking for you, Toigo.
Me?



Uh. Mari, I know you're

I know you're a midget and all, but you actually weigh like a ton of bricks. I think you should lay off the sweets.

Says you, ya big lord!

Also, he wanted

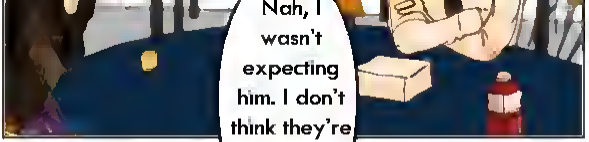
me to give you this?

Hm? What's that? Juice?

That kid has a weird way af shawing he cares abaut people.
So where's Danny naw? Apparently he's tao busy ta give me this stuff on his own?
TOSS

Oh-- were you expecting him? When I last saw him, he was at my dorm. He said he wanted ta talk ta Rachelle.

Rachelle and the kill-joy? Are those two dating or samething?



Nah, I wasn't expecting him. I don't think they're dating either.

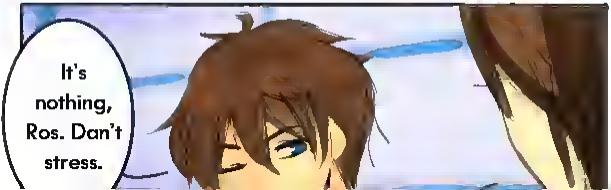
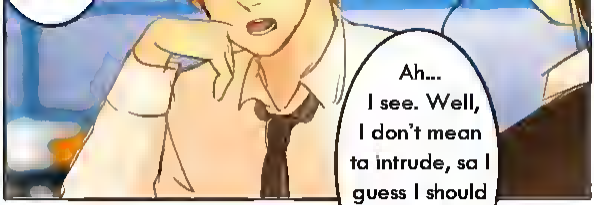
Did anything happen while I was away? Should I be concerned...?



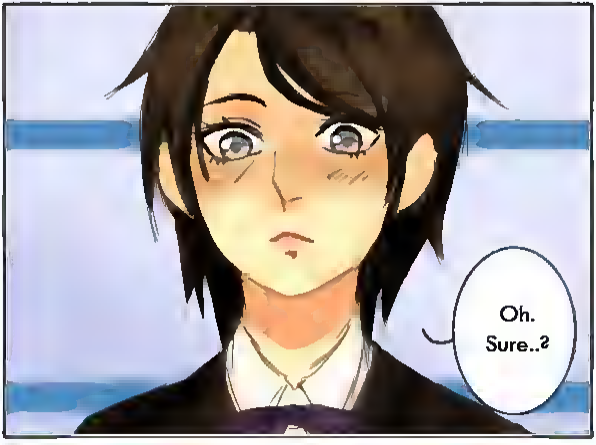
It's nothing, Ros. Don't stress.

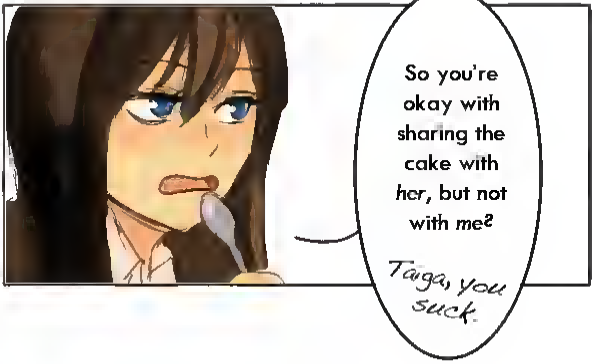


Ah... I see. Well, I don't mean ta intrude, sa I guess I should get going then.

Why the rush? Yau came all this way anyway, yau might as well stay for a bit.

Are you in the mood for dessert?





So you're okay with sharing the cake with her, but not with me?
Taiga, you suck.

So...
You're actually not a big fan of sweets?

W-well, I've never had much of a sweet toath, ta be honest-- But hey! Cakes ga really great with coffee, right?
I probably should have asked you before I bought the cake. Sorry.

Ah! Don't apologize, Dindin. You were being thoughtful. I'm sure it's still really tasty!

See?

CHOMP
Mmm~
Derishish!
♥

Pfft-- You're
such o
dork.

You don't have to force
yourself,
okoy?

...
Note to self: She doesn't like sweets.
R-roscoe loves

strawberries. Maybe I should save some cake far him.

Anyway, care ta explain the paster baard?

Club recruiting! I'm in charge of making the posters.

Sounds troublesome.
giggle
You say that about everything!
Have you thought about joining any clubs?
We recently received the forms for the ostronomy club! You should join!

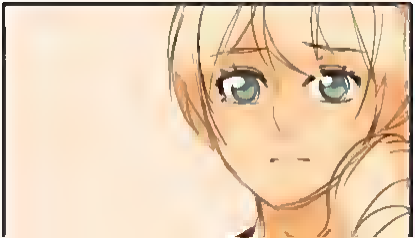
... I wouldn't be cought dead in the astronomy club.

O-oh... I thought you liked astronomy?

I do.
But trust me, no one wants me there.



"You're probably better off doing sports."
That's what my dad says, at least. He's been telling me that ever since I asked to go to science camp when I was nine.

So normally, I'd take up a sport... Only to quit after a few months.

And that's what I'll probobly do ogoin this yeor. It's the some old boring cycle.

I see.
...Well, whot obout you? Hove you thought obout joining a club?

Perhaps dance?

No.. Too much physical exertion, remember?

I think my SC duties keep me busy enough. No clubs for me~
B-by the woy-- I've been meoning to ask... How is Ron-chon doing?

She wos quick to chonge the topic of "doncing" right away.
I guess she's not comfortoble with tolking about it. Though I kind of expected it, she never mentioned the subject before.

The cat is okay. He's starting to scratch up a lot of my stuff and furniture though.
I'll have to figure out how to sneak a scratching post into the dorms somehow.
Oh no... Ron-chon ...

Since we found him together, I feel like I have some sort of responsibility in this too.

S-so if there's anything I can do, just tell me!

You can be the mommy and I can be-- like, the dad who works long hours and is barely home!

I love my

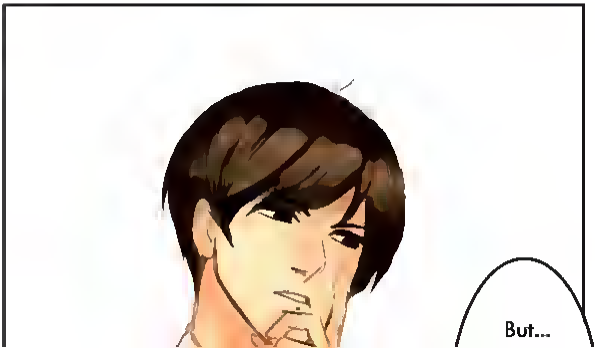
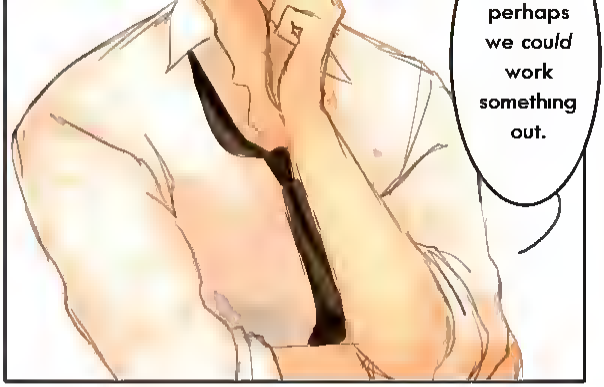
What on earth are you spouting-- And who are you calling "mommy"?





perhaps we could work something out.

OUT OF INK

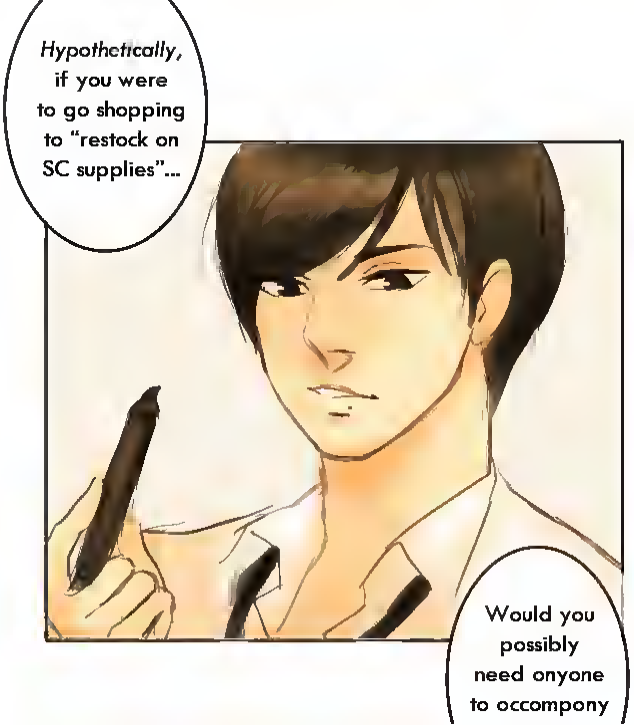
GRAB
Well, let's just say...



Hypothetically, if you were to go shopping to "restock on SC supplies"...
Would you possibly need onyone to occompony yau?

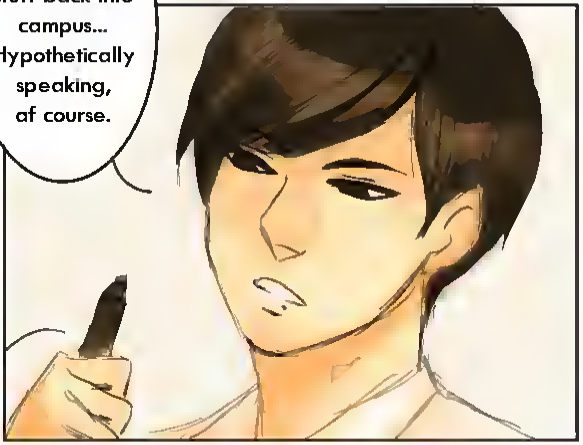
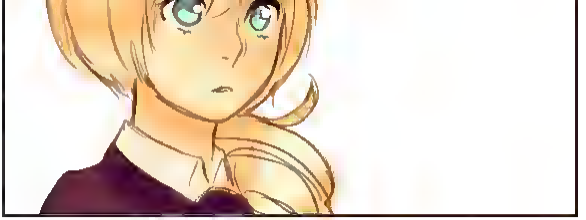
You know, to carry heavy stuff back into campus... Hypothetically speaking, of course.





Ooh--
Yes!

Dindin, would you like to

"accompany" me tomorrow while I get "SC supplies"?
awkward wink
Sure, but... maybe we should leave the subtleties to me.

Aww.
No fair.
I want to look cool
too...
